When Jerritt Elliott was hired as the seventh head coach in Texas Volleyball history in the spring of 2001, he was charged with returning the Longhorns back to national prominence. In 24 seasons, Elliott has accomplished that – and more – with three National Championships. His efforts to bring the program back to the top of the collegiate volleyball world came to fruition by winning the 2012 NCAA national championship, the program's third national title and second in NCAA play. Ten years later, Elliott led the Longhorns' back to the pinnacle of the sport by winning the 2022 NCAA national championship and then repeating with the 2023 national title.

Elliott, who holds a 659-133 career record in 26 seasons as a collegiate head coach and a 609-121 mark in 24 years at Texas, has brought enthusiasm, experience and growing success to UT. That has translated to Top 10 rankings the past 19 seasons, 18 trips to the NCAA Regional finals, 11 NCAA Semifinal appearances, seven NCAA Championship appearances (2009, 2012, 2015, 2016, 2020, 2022 and 2023) and capacity crowds at Gregory Gymnasium, the home of Texas Volleyball. Elliott's sustained success allowed him to become the program's winningest head coach, surpassing Mick Haley's 522 wins at Texas from 1980-96.

Elliott has a keen eye for young talent and he has developed a reputation as one of the nation's best recruiters. Elliott's 2011 class was his first top-ranked class at Texas after previously bringing in four classes that ranked second. His philosophy of recruiting "to win national championships" - not just filling perceived needs of a team - has proven successful, as his last two classes as the head coach at USC went on to win back-to-back national titles in 2002 and 2003.

At Texas, the groundwork for success was laid with his very first signing class in 2001 that included eventual All-Americans Mira Topic and Bethany Howden. The signing of the 2003 incoming class - Armstrong, Jenny Andrew, Magee and Jessica Curtis - solidified the team's depth two years later. Even without the addition of sophomore transfer Dariam Acevedo, the 2003 class was ranked second by Volleyball Magazine and helped lay the foundation for Texas' future successes.
A year later in 2004, Elliott and his staff added Moriarty, Jen Christian and Alyson Jennings. In 2005, height and physicality were added with the inclusion of the team's 6-5 middles, Paolini and RuthAnn Feist, and a back-row stalwart in Kiley Hall.

The addition of two more Top 10 prep players in 2006 and 2007 - including the player in the 2006 class whom pundits described as one of the most versatile in her age group, Engle. Texas Volleyball continued on its push toward a deep NCAA Championship run behind the powerful hitting of Engle and Hooker, as well as pair of Top three prep players - Faucette and Jennifer Doris. Texas added No. 3 national recruit Rachael Adams in 2008 and No. 1 national recruit Bailey Webster and No. 5 national recruit Sha'Dare McNeal in 2009 to bolster the already youthful Longhorns' roster. In 2011, Elliott added another group of Longhorn recruits in No. 2 recruit Khat Bell, No. 5 recruit Haley Eckerman and No. 13 national recruit Madelyn Hutson. The 2012 class was ranked No. 2 nationally with four Top 20 players: No. 1 recruit Molly McCage, No. 6 Nicole Dalton, No. 9 Sara Hattis and No. 18 Amy Neal. Elliott returned to the No. 1 spot with his 2017 class, welcoming No. 1 recruit Lexi Sun, No. 2 Brionne Butler, No. 6 Ashley Shook, and Olivia Zelon. The 2019 class featured No. 1 overall recruit Skylar Fields and a top-50 selection Molly Phillips.

Elliott's ability to develop blue-chip recruits is well documented. Since 2002, Elliott has developed 37 student-athletes who have earned 86 All-America honors.

On a conference level, Texas entered the SEC and earned four AIII-SEC honors , while 42 players earned 106 All-Big 12 nods, including four or more in 16 of the last 17 seasons. Ten players have earned Big 12 Player of the Year honors a total of 14 times: Mira Topic (2004), Destinee Hooker (2009), Juliann Faucette (2010), Bailey Webster (2011), Haley Eckerman (2012, 13, 14), Amy Neal (2015), Chiaka Ogbogu (2017), Micaya White (2018), Logan Eggleston (2020, 21, 22) and Madisen Skinner (2023). UT boasts nine Big 12 Freshman of the Year awards, including winning three straight with Engle (2006), Faucette (2007) and Kocher (2008). Logan Eggleston (2018) and Skylar Fields (2019) won the award in back-to-back seasons.

Elliott's peers have taken notice of his work in Austin, voting him the AVCA National Coach of the Year in 2012 while earning AVCA Region Coach of the Year honors in 2004, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2013, 2021 and 2022. He is also the nine-time Big 12 Coach of the Year honoree (2004, '07, '10, '11, '14, '18, '20, '21 and '22).

Additionally, Elliott earned Pac-10 Coach of the Year honors in 1999 and 2000 in his two years as the Women of Troy's head coach, as well as AVCA Pacific Region Coach of the Year accolades in 2000 after leading USC to its first volleyball final four appearance in 15 seasons and first-ever share of the Pac-10 Championship.

2024 saw Texas play in its first season in the SEC and reached the NCAA Regional Semifinal for the 19th-straight season. The Longhorns finished the season with a 20-7 record and was led by Madisen Skinner who was named to the All-SEC First Team, named to the State College Regional All-Torunament Team and earned AVCA Second Team All-America honors. Marianna Singletary joined Skinner on the SEC First Team ballot, while Reagan Rutherford earned Second Team honors with Ayden Ames joining the All-Freshman team.

The 2023 season saw Elliott and Texas Volleyball accomplish something only achieved by eight other Longhorn programs in history – winning back-to-back National Championships. Texas finished the season with a 28-4 overall record and swept Nebraska in dominating fashion in the championship match. Madisen Skinner was named the Final Four Most Outstanding Player after having already earning Big 12 Player of the Year honors. Asjia O'Neal, Emma Halter and Ella Swindle joined Skinner on the Final Four All-Tournament Team. O'Neal capped off an incredible career with her second-consecutive National Championship and along with Skinner was named a First Team All-American.

Ten years after winning his first national championship, Elliott led Texas back to the top of the NCAA Volleyball world by winning the 2022 National Championship with a 28-1 overall record. The Longhorns advanced to the program's 14th Final Four and defeated San Diego in a tough semifinal match before sweeping Louisville in the National Championship match in Omaha, Nebraska. Eggleston was named the AVCA National Player of the Year and Final Four Most Outstanding Player after leading the Longhorns with 19 kills in the championship match. Selected as the No. 1 overall seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, the Longhorns spent 13 of 14 weeks ranked in the top spot during the season. Elliott and Texas won the program's sixth-consecutive Big 12 Championship and placed a record six players on the All-Big 12 First Team. Eggleston, who was named Big 12 Player of the Year for the third time, led a group of six players on the All-America teams including fellow first teamers Zoe Fleck and Asjia O'Neal.

Texas opened the 2021 season with an 18-0 record and spent the first 10 weeks of the season ranked No. 1 in the AVCA poll. The Longhorns would lose just one regular season match and earn the No. 2 national seed in the NCAA Tournament before falling in the Regional Final to eventual runner-up Nebraska. The appearance in the NCAA Regional Final was the Longhorns' 15th in the last 16 seasons. Logan Eggleston was recognized as the VolleyballMag.com National Player of the Year, while Brionne Butler earned first team All-America recognition. Skylar Fields and Asjia O'Neal were also recognized as All-Americans. Elliott picked up his eighth Big 12 Coach of the Year award and his sixth AVCA Region Coach of the Year honor.

The 2020 season saw Texas return to the Final Four and the NCAA Championship match, coming up short against Kentucky to finish as the NCAA Runner Up. The season was unlike any other due to the COVID-19 pandemic, with the Longhorns sweeping through the Big 12 schedule during the Fall of 2020 before playing a spring non-conference schedule to prepare for the NCAA Tournament. Texas earned the No. 4 overall seed at the tournament, hosted entirely in Omaha, Nebraska, and defeated No. 13 Penn State, No. 5 Nebraska and No. 1 Wisconsin on the way to the title match. The Longhorns landed five players on the AVCA All-American teams, led by first teamers Logan Eggleston and Brionne Butler. Additionally, Jhenna Gabriel was named to the third team and Skylar Fields and Asjia O'Neal received Honorable Mention All-America accolades. Eggleston had a highly decorated season, being named the Big 12 Player of the Year, Big 12 Student-Athlete of the Year and AVCA Southwest Regional Player of the Year.

In 2017, Texas posted its 10th Big 12 Conference title after finishing its second undefeated league record in Longhorn Volleyball history. Senior Chiaka Ogbogu earned UT's seventh Big 12 Player of the Year award, while five additional Longhorns were named All-Big 12 (Nwanebu, McCoy, White, Sun, Shook). Ogbogu became Texas' all-time blocks leader, while fellow senior Cat McCoy broke the all-time digs record. The Longhorns made their 14th-straight NCAA Tournament appearance, selected as the No. 6 seed and advancing to an NCAA record 12th-straight NCAA Regional Final after defeating Fairfield, NC State, and Utah, eventually falling to No. 3-seed Stanford in Palo Alto. Six players earned All-America honors led by Ogbogu on the First Team and White on the Third Team.

The 2016 season was not short on drama, as the Longhorns entered the season ranked No. 2 and finished the season ranked No. 2 after falling in the NCAA Championship match. The Horns finished second in the Big 12 Conference, with freshman Micaya White collecting Freshman of the Year honors. Texas entered its 13th-straight NCAA Tournament with a No. 4 seed and a 22-4 record, winning five-straight matches to advance to its third NCAA Championship match in five years. The Longhorns hosted the first four matches of the tournament, defeating UTRGV and SMU in the first and second rounds. They welcomed BYU and Creighton in the regional rounds, coming back to defeat BYU in five sets and sweeping the Bluejays to advance to their eighth NCAA Semifinal in the last nine years. Texas found redemption in its defeat of No. 1 Nebraska in the Final Four in Columbus, Ohio, before falling to Stanford, 3-1 in the title match. Four players earned All-America honors, including White and junior Ebony Nwanebu, who were named to the First Team, senior Chloe Collins, who earned Second Team honors, and senior Paulina Prieto Cerame, who landed on the Honorable Mention list. White also earned National Freshman of the Year accolades from VolleyballMag.com.

In 2015, the Longhorns entered the season ranked No. 3 and did not fall out of the top five all season, ending in the No. 2 spot. The Horns earned their fifth-straight Big 12 Championship and seventh-straight Big 12 Player of the Year honor with senior Amy Neal collecting the award. Texas entered its 12th-straight NCAA Tournament with a No. 3 seed and a 25-2 record and continued on to win five-straight matches to advance to its second NCAA Championship match in four years. The Longhorns played the first four matches in Gregory Gym, taking down Fairfield and Purdue in the first and second rounds and following with victories over UCLA and a five-set thriller over Florida to advance to their seventh NCAA Semifinal in the last eight years. Texas didn't stop there, defeating Minnesota in the semifinal match before falling to Nebraska in the NCAA final match in Omaha, Neb. Five players earned All-America honors for the second-straight year, as senior Amy Neal and junior Chiaka Ogbogu were named to the First Team, junior Paulina Prieto Cerame the Second Team and junior Chloe Collins and senior Molly McCage the Third Team.

The 2014 squad entered the season ranked No. 2 and sustained a top-five ranking throughout the season. Texas earned its fourth-straight Big 12 Championship with a 15-1 record and rolled into the NCAA Tournament with a No. 2 seed and a 23-2 record, earning Elliott his fifth Big 12 Coach of the Year honor. Seniors Haley Eckerman and Khat Bell became the first duo to win a Big 12 Championship in every season of their Texas careers, but their success didn't stop there. The Longhorns rolled past the first and second rounds in Austin and continued on past Colorado State in the regional semifinal and North Carolina in the regional final to find themselves in their sixth NCAA Semifinal in seven years. Texas fell to BYU in the semifinal match, but five players earned All-America honors, including Eckerman, Bell, juniors Molly McCage and Amy Neal and sophomore Chiaka Ogbogu.

In 2013, the Elliott-led Longhorns earned a preseason ranking of No. 1 for the first time in program history. While holding on to the nation's top ranking for much of the year, Texas swept its conference opponents to complete the first perfect Big 12 Conference season in program history and entered the 2013 NCAA Championship on the heels of a 19-straight wins behind Volleyball Magazine Player of the Year Haley Eckerman. The Longhorns' win streak of 10-straight NCAA Tournament matches culminated in a 3-1 loss to 12th-seeded Wisconsin in the national semifinal and ended the season ranked No. 3 nationally. Eckerman picked up AVCA All-America First Team honors for the second-consecutive year, while Bailey Webster and Chiaka Ogbogu earned second team selections and Hannah Allison, Khat Bell and Molly McCage were named honorable mention.

A magical run in 2012 culminated with the program's third national championship after the Longhorns swept Oregon, 3-0, in the national title match. Texas finished with a 29-4 record while earning another Big 12 title with a 15-1 mark. The Longhorns finished the season by winning 23 of their final 24 matches. Bailey Webster, Haley Eckerman, Khat Bell and Sha'Dare McNeal earned AVCA All-America honors. Webster was named most outstanding player for the NCAA Tournament while Eckerman earned Big 12 Player of the Year honors. Elliott was named AVCA National Coach of the Year.

The 2011 squad finished fourth in the nation, going 25-5 and reaching the NCAA Regional final while posting a 15-1 mark to win the Big 12 Conference championship. With the help of AVCA National Freshman of the Year Haley Eckerman, along with first team All-Americans Rachael Adams and Bailey Webster, the Longhorns were able to post another successful season. Elliott was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, the fourth time in his career he received the honor as eight Longhorns earned conference honors. Webster was named Big 12 Player of the Year while Eckerman garnered conference Freshman of the Year recognition.

Elliott's 2010 team overcame five season-ending injuries and lineup carousels to play its way to its third consecutive NCAA Semifinal appearance. En route to a 27-6 record, Elliott's management skills earned him co-Big 12 Coach of the Year honors for the third time and his third AVCA Central Region Coach of the Year award. At season's end the Horns were ranked fourth in both national polls and they finished second in the Big 12 standings. Elliott once again coached a pair of players to All-America status with Juliann Faucette and Rachael Adams each collecting AVCA and Volleyball Magazine All-America First Team honors.

In 2009, Elliott's Longhorns garnered their greatest success during his tenure at UT, advancing to the NCAA Championship match for the first time since 1995. Texas played one of the sport's all-time greatest championship matches as it fell to two-time defending champion Penn State in five sets. The Horns posted a 29-2 record on the season and claimed their third-straight Big 12 title and first outright championship since 1997. Texas concluded the season ranked No. 2 nationally in both polls, while Destinee Hooker and Ashley Engle garnered All-America First Team honors and Faucette landed on the third team. Hooker was named Volleyball Magazine Co-National Player of the Year and Big 12 Player of the Year in 2009 and all three players garnered All-Big 12 and AVCA All-Region lauds.

The 2008 squad returned the Longhorns to the forefront of the national volleyball scene, advancing to the NCAA Semifinals for the first time since 1995. The Longhorns posted a 29-4 record on the year and earned their second straight share of the Big 12 title, while concluding the season ranked No. 4 nationally. The trio of Engle, Hooker and Lauren Paolini garnered All-America First Team honors, marking the most first-team honorees in program history. Elliott coached four players to All-Big 12 accolades and helped setter Michelle Kocher garner UT's third straight Big 12 Freshman of the Year honor.

In 2008, Elliott added another honor when he was chosen to coach the USA Volleyball A2 Team at the USA Adult Open Volleyball Championships in Atlanta, Ga.

Elliott's 2007 squad earned UT's second straight trip to the NCAA Regional finals and claimed its first Big 12 Championship since 1997, sharing the title with Nebraska. Texas' 27-4 record in 2007 marked Elliott's fourth straight season with at least 24 victories.
Elliott garnered AVCA All-Central Region and Big 12 Coach of the Year honors in 2007 after leading Texas to a No. 6 ranking. In 2007, he coached four players - Faucette, Hooker, Michelle Moriarty and Paolini - to All-America honors, while mentoring six players to All-Big 12 accolades.

In 2006, a mix of veteran and freshman talent helped lead the Longhorns to a 24-7 mark and UT's first trip to the NCAA Regional finals since 1998.

The 2006 squad boasted three returning All-Americans - Leticia Armstrong, Brandy Magee and Moriarty going into the season, but the Horns played the majority of the season with only Moriarty in the lineup. After losing two All-Americans to injury, a pair of sensational freshmen, Engle and Hooker, stepped up to earn All-America honors of their own and lead the Horns to a No. 7 ranking in the final AVCA Top 25 Poll.

In 2004, the Longhorns posted a 26-5 record. The team concluded the regular season with a second-place Big 12 finish. In the postseason, the Longhorns played their way to the NCAA Regional semifinals before falling to eventual national champion Stanford. When the final polls came out, Texas earned a final ranking of No. 11, marking the program's best finish since the 1998 campaign.

In 2003, beset by injuries and several off-court family emergencies that forced him to use 11 different lineups, Elliott guided the Horns to a 15-14 overall record and a 10-10 mark in Big 12 Conference matches. While many assumed Texas had written off its season with just three weeks left, Elliott led his team to a 4-1 mark down the stretch, including a season-ending 3-1 victory at home over No. 5 Kansas State. Topic and Howden earned honorable mention All-America honors after both garnering first-team AVCA All-Central Region and first-team All-Big 12 accolades.

Without a senior on the squad in 2002, Elliott led the Longhorns to their second NCAA appearance since his arrival and moved up to a fourth-place finish in the Big 12 Conference. He also developed his first All-American at Texas in Topic, when she was named an AVCA third-team All-American. In addition, Elliott guided 2000 All-Central Region honoree Kathy Hahn's return to the court after a redshirt season in 2001.

In his first season in 2001, Elliott guided the Longhorns to three wins over Top 25 opponents, including a come-from-behind 3-2 victory over then-No. 11 BYU in the team's second match of the season. He also was responsible for developing the nationally-recognized freshmen duo of Topic (Big 12 and AVCA Central Region Freshman of the Year) and Howden (Big 12 honorable mention), who both earned ASICS/Volleyball Magazine Freshman All-America honors.

Prior to his appointment as head coach at Texas in April of 2001, Elliott posted two remarkable seasons as the interim head coach at the University of Southern California. He compiled a record of 50-12 while leading the Women of Troy to their first NCAA Semifinals appearance in 15 years and first-ever share of the Pac-10 Conference title. In 2000, USC finished the season ranked No. 4 nationally by both the AVCA and Volleyball Magazine while going 29-3 en route to the NCAA Semifinals. Elliott was honored as Pac-10 Coach of the Year both seasons, as well as being named the 2000 Pacific Region Coach of the Year.
Under the leadership of Elliott, the Trojans featured two All-Americans in 2000 (April Ross and Jennifer Pahl) and six all-conference players, including the Pac-10 and Region Freshman of the Year (Ross). In both 2000 and 2001, Elliott's recruiting class was regarded as No. 1 in the nation, the school's first-ever No. 1 recruiting classes.

Prior to his two years as interim head coach, Elliott spent four years at USC as an assistant coach under head coach Lisa Love. As an assistant at USC, Elliott helped guide the Women of Troy to finish in the top 15 nationally all four years. He also was instrumental in developing two-time All-American middle blocker Jasmina Marinkovic (1995-98).
Elliott earned another honor when he was appointed head coach of the USA Junior National Team for the summer of 2001. But due to his appointment at Texas, Elliott had to relinquish the role with USA Volleyball. Elliott was an assistant coach on the 1998 U.S. Junior National Team, which won the NORCECA gold medal and qualified for the World Championships.

Additionally, he served as the director/head coach of the Westside Volleyball Club from 1992-95, where he led his 1994 squad to a fourth-place finish in the Nike Volleyball Festival. In 1992-93, Elliott assumed the role as head coach for the Forum Team Cup Volleyball.

He gained his first collegiate level coaching experience as an assistant with the Cal State Northridge men's volleyball program in 1993. That season the Matadors advanced to the NCAA Championship match before losing to UCLA.

Among his high school head coaching experiences, Elliott spent three years (1992-1994) at Marymount High in Westwood, Calif., where he guided his girls' squad to the league championship in 1993. He also spent one year (1991) at his alma mater, Palisades High, in Pacific Palisades, Calif., leading the girls' team to a 16-3 record and the Los Angeles city title.

Elliott played collegiate volleyball at Pepperdine in 1986-88 and at Hawai'i during the 1989-90 season. The Pacific Palisades, Calif., native attended Palisades High, where he was high school teammates with 1996 U.S. Olympic beach volleyball gold medalist Kent Steffes. Elliott was an All-L.A. City second-team selection as he helped Palisades to a 36-0 record in his final season.

Born April 28, 1968, Elliott earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Cal State Northridge in 1991. He has a daughter, Kahle (May 18, 1998), and two sons, Parker (July 26, 2005) and Mack (Oct. 20, 2006). Elliott and wife Andrea Nucete-Elliott were married on March 11, 2018.

Gregory Gymnasium

GREGORY GYM - The Horns' House - is one of the finest collegiate volleyball facilities in the country. The gym that has hosted some of the most memorable moments in Texas Volleyball history made its much-anticipated return in 1998 after an eight-year renovation.

During the last 24 seasons at The Greg, Texas has boasted some of the greatest fan support in the country and consistently ranks among the nation's leaders in home attendance. From the families who have supported the team for decades to the more recent Hellraisers (a student support group), Gregory Gym has one of the best fan bases in the nation, making it one of volleyball's toughest venues for visiting teams.

Texas has an all-time .887 winning percentage at Gregory Gym (464-65). In the first season in the SEC, the Longhorns averaged 4,393 fans per match. Over the 2022 and 2023 seasons, the Longhorns smashed program attendance records and had a record average attendance of 4,495 during the 2023 season. In the 2022 NCAA Regional Final against Ohio State, Texas set a Gregory Gym attendance record with a crowd of 5,344.

The state-of-the-art, 4,000-seat facility features a friendly, roomy environment for players, coaches and fans alike. Spacious locker rooms, offices, meeting rooms and a players' lounge were constructed recently, joining other recent updates that include a new sound system.

Texas Volleyball fans are treated to upper-level seating that puts them right on top of the action. Additionally, fans on the floor level are treated to seat-backs for more comfortable viewing.
